

China CITIC Bank International comes out tops in the Hong Kong Institute of Bankers' Outstanding Financial Management Planner Awards

(Hong Kong: 22 June 2022) China CITIC Bank International Limited (the "Bank" or "CNCBI") announces that the Bank has received a total of nine awards from the 14th Hong Kong Institute of Banker ("HKIB") Outstanding Financial Management Planner Awards.

CNCBI has always been committed to people development as part of its contribution to the sustainable development of Hong Kong's banking and finance industry. The Bank has participated and won various awards in the HKIB Outstanding Financial Management Planner Awards since the inception of the industry's main event 14 years ago. This year, again, the Bank came out tops with the following awards.

- Top Nomination Award
- Gold Award, Best Financial Planning Proposal Award and five Certificates of Merit (Group B: Financial management planners with more than three years of experience in serving general wealth management customers)
- One Certificate of Merit (Group C: Financial management planners serving high-net-worth customers with US$1 million of investable assets or above)

Ms Anne Lee, Deputy Head of Personal & Business Banking Group and Head of Sales and Distribution, CNCBI, said: "In addition to providing professional training and a colourful array of learning and development opportunities, we encourage our people to participate in professional competitions as a means to broadening their horizon, boosting their professional 'Confidence' and confirming their 'Belief' in their professional aspiration. Getting an award, of course, also helps to increase our customers' 'Trust' for us. This underscores the Bank's 'Grow Together Trust Forever' determination and ideology."

Riding on a century of heritage in the banking industry as well as leadership in cross-border business and FinTech application on the back of the strong support of ultimate parent the CITIC Group and parent bank China CITIC Bank, the Bank launched its private banking service in Hong Kong in 2011 to provide bespoke professional wealth management solutions to high-net-worth individuals. In view of the growing population of high-net-worth customers on both sides of the Chinese border, the Bank in July 2020 launched officially its CITIC*diamond* service providing a full suite of wealth management services and exclusive privileges to high-net-worth customers with diverse needs.

Ms Lee added, "China CITIC Bank International will continue to pursue our aspiration and belief in building up a foundation on trust, walking together with our employees, customers and business partners to create infinite opportunism and to contribute to the long-term development of Hong Kong's banking industry and community.”
