

China CITIC Bank International opens new offices in Quarry Bay

“Agile. Professional. Simple.” design concepts to accentuate bank cultural elements

(Hong Kong: 4 April 2023) China CITIC Bank International Limited (“CNCBI”) officially opened its new offices at Two Taikoo Place in Quarry Bay with the Bank’s unique 4C core values integrated to accentuate its visions of “Agile. Professional. Simple.”, providing new workplace experiences and a sense of warmth to more than 1,500 employees.

China CITIC Bank International currently has main offices in International Commerce Centre and Two Taikoo Place. The new offices at Two Taikoo Place occupy more than six floors of the office tower for mainly the Bank’s mid- and back-office management and support units such as retail banking, operations and IT. The new offices, which adopt an open-space design, underscore simplicity and practicality with various environmental-friendly and human-centric office facilities. These contribute to the creation of a human-centred, agile and efficient work environment which underpins an environmental-social-and-governance (ESG) sustainable development work culture.

Mr Bi Mingqiang, President and Chief Executive Officer, China CITIC Bank International Limited, said, “The Bank’s new offices, from planning and design to the work and the move were all completed during the pandemic. The project team embraced the challenge and completed the project with great efficiency and in an orderly manner in various batches and stages, ensuring the Bank’s business operations remain unaffected. The move and opening of the new offices coincided with the beginning of Bank’s new century. I look forward to an even brighter future for CNCBI.”

4C principles underscore design features

- Culture
Various eco-friendly, energy-efficient facilities are put in place in the daily operations as a means to inculcating fully an environmental-social-and-governance (ESG) sustainable development work culture.
- Customer
Every one of the CNCBI employees is an important asset of the Bank. As such, the Bank handpicks human-centric office facilities in an effort to create a human-centred, highly-efficient work environment for them. Comprehensive virtual and physical meeting models and facilities are also in place to make meetings with internal parties or customer communications convenient and simple.

- Cyberspace
Professional-grade wireless internet connections with advanced electronic equipment support efficient operations.
- Collaboration
Open-space design offers simplicity and practicality with shared spaces for collaboration encourages uninterrupted exchanges and communications for agile and efficient work performance.
